

Welcome to the Michigan Information Interaction Lab!

We are a new human-computer interaction lab at the University of Michigan School of Information directed by Michael Nebeling.
Welcome!

Below we have more info and some ideas on how to help you navigate this site. Please scroll down ↓

About Us

We study the next generation of user interfaces, as well as the methods and tools to create them.

We are part of MISC, the Michigan Interactive and Social Computing group. MISC is a cross-campus research group at the University of Michigan that brings together faculty and students from Information, Computer Science and Engineering, Art and Design, and more.

Recent Posts

12-week paid master's student research opportunities

Winter 2017 Comerica Hackathons

The story so far...

The first cohort of the Mi2 Lab enthusiastically started working in the Fall of 2016